Kocaeli University School of Law

Founded in 1995, Kocaeli University Law School (Faculty of Law) today is proud to be recognized as a dynamic and fastest rising law school in Turkey. Our Law School has provided an education that combines an understanding of the theory and the practice of law. Our main goal is to equip our students with the knowledge and skills to solve problems for society.

The School offers a four-year program of study for the degree of Bachelor of Law -LL.B. We have a comprehensive and contemporary curriculum taught by outstanding and distinguished faculty. Our faculty members are nationally and internationally recognized legal scholars in various areas of the law, from civil law to public law, from international law to economic law.

The law school is a great place to study since its curriculum is extensive and always changing to meet the needs of students. The curriculum includes various required and elective courses. The elective courses offered will accordingly differ from semester to semester. The law school offers elective courses covering Turkish Corporate and Securities Law, Health Law, Insurance Law, European Human Rights Law, Intellectual Property Law, International Commercial Law. Students may choose a course that fits with their academic goals and their specific interests.

The main purpose of the Law School is to educate distinguished and qualified legal professionals and support researches in all areas of law. Furthermore, the school has an academic staff of 37 and 10 administrative and technical personnel who work at the student affairs office, at the library and at other supporting services.

Turkish Law Schools accept students after high school. Students who want to pursue legal education must take a nation wide university entrance exam. This examination is very selective and administrated by the High Education Council Student Selection and Placement Center. Approximately, 100 students are admitted to the faculty of Law each year. At the moment, the number of the Faculty Students is about 410.

Our graduates have an excellent record of finding employment. The graduates of the law school can work as lawyers, judges, public attorneys, academics, etc.
